Sierra Black

No one makes country music quite like Sierra Black, and that's because the brave young vocalist is carving out her own path to create music that is inspiring and irresistible. With a contemporary country sound that is influenced by both pop and gospel, she is poised to emerge as this generation's Shania Twain.

8PM

Love and Theft

Love And Theft, comprised of Stephen Barker Liles and Eric Gunderson, have built a loyal fan base through their high energy performances, signature vocal harmonies and lyrical storytelling.

Fresh off the heels of the “blistering, emotionally gut-wrenching” (AXS.com) single, “Whiskey On My Breath”, the ACM/CMA/CMT nominated duo, Love And Theft, return with their Curb Records single “Love Wins”.

The pair's career launched with the #1 country smash “Angel Eyes”, top 10 hit “Runaway” and subsequent charted hits, “Dancing In Circles,” “Runnin’ Out Of Air,” “If You Ever Get Lonely,” and “Night That You’ll Never Forget”.

Love And Theft is currently putting the final touches on the new album which can be expected in the Fall of 2017.

Evil Waze

Ultimate Santana Tribute Experience, Evil Waze, features Mike Torres on guitar. Torres, who lives in Phoenix, Arizona, not only sounds strikingly similar to Santana but is a mirror image of the guitar legend as well. Starting at age 7 Mike learned guitar from his father and has spent the better part of the last five decades mastering it. Mike has played with such big stars as Michael McDonald, Al DiMeola and Spyro Gyra. Based in Las Vegas, Nevada, Evil Waze band members include some of the finest musicians from Mexico, Puerto Rico and Cuba. With lead singer Carlos David, who has performed with stars such as Ricky Martin, Carlos Santana, Jennifer Lopez and Alejandro Sanz, no other Santana tribute band matches the realism of Evil Waze.
